

Colchester High School

School Motto:

“God First, Others Second, Self Last”

Our Ethos:

is to provide a safe, happy and supportive environment in which each individual feels valued and respected, where true potential is recognised, high expectations are fulfilled, and personal achievements are celebrated.

Our Aims are:

- to develop the whole individual through high quality learning experiences.
- to promote high levels of personal esteem, confidence and courtesy.
- to create an environment in which we each respect and value each others' rights, needs and abilities.

Our Curriculum will:

- be varied, challenging and inspiring.
- build upon first-hand experiences.
- be rich, stimulating and relevant.
- enable pupils to enjoy learning.
- prepare pupils for the future.
