

Colchester High School

School Motto:

“God First, Others Second, Self Last.”

Our Ethos:

is to provide a safe, happy and supportive environment in which each individual feels valued and respected, where true potential is recognised, high expectations are fulfilled, and personal achievements are celebrated.

Our Aims are:

- to develop the whole individual through high quality learning experiences and opportunities for Character Development.
- to promote high levels of personal esteem, resilience, confidence and courtesy.
- to create an environment in which we each respect and value each others’ rights, needs and abilities.
- to prepare pupils for the future, promoting a global perspective.

Our Curriculum will:

- be varied, challenging and inspiring.
- build upon first-hand experiences.
- be rich, stimulating and relevant.
- enable pupils to enjoy learning.
